

An Ardor Learning Group Class

Books & Movies

In this class you'll:

- Talk about different kinds of books and movies
- Discuss about your preferences when watching a movie or reading a book
- Learn how to describe a plot
- Use key vocabulary

Ice-breaker

- Are you a book lover? Or do you prefer to lay on the sofa watching Netflix with a popcorn bowl?

What's your favourite kind of book?

mystery

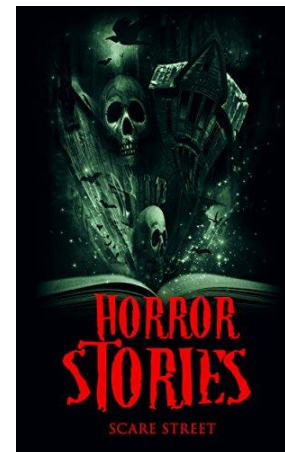

adventure stories

romance

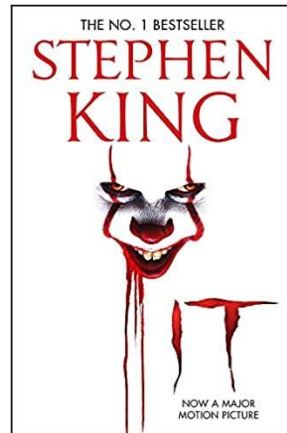

horror stories

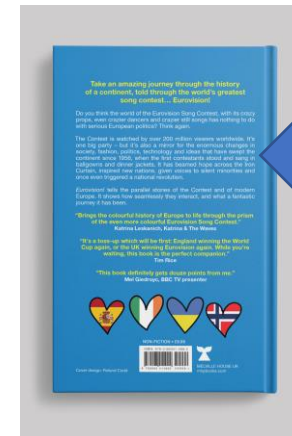

Do you usually choose a book by its cover or by its blurb?

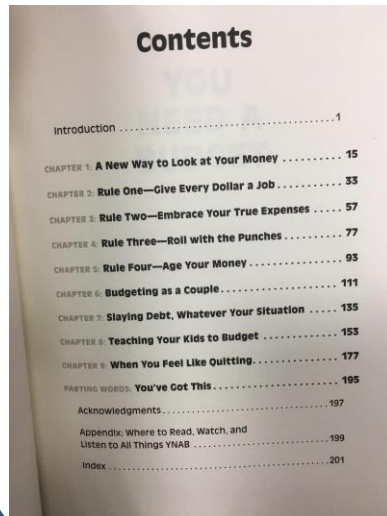

front cover

back cover

blurb

Contents
Introduction	1
CHAPTER 1: A New Way to Look at Your Money	15
CHAPTER 2: Rule One—Give Every Dollar a Job	33
CHAPTER 3: Rule Two—Embrace Your True Expenses	57
CHAPTER 4: Rule Three—Roll with the Punches	77
CHAPTER 5: Rule Four—Age Your Money	93
CHAPTER 6: Budgeting as a Couple	111
CHAPTER 7: Slaying Debt, Whatever Your Situation	135
CHAPTER 8: Teaching Your Kids to Budget	153
CHAPTER 9: When You Feel Like Quitting	177
PARTING WORDS: You've Got This	195
Acknowledgments	197
Appendix: Where to Read, Watch, and Listen to All Things YNAB	199
Index	201

index

chapter

What's your favourite kind of movie?

drama

action

western science-fiction

cartoon

comedy

romance/love

horror

Have you ever been shocked
by the end of a movie or a book?
Why?

Have you ever felt disappointed
by a very successful
movie or book?

Describing a plot

My favourite book / movie is called... _____

It's set in... (time/period)

The most interesting character is...

_____

It's about... _____

What I liked most about it was... _____

Can you think of movies that match these quotes?

That movie was so entertaining...
I found the plot very interesting.

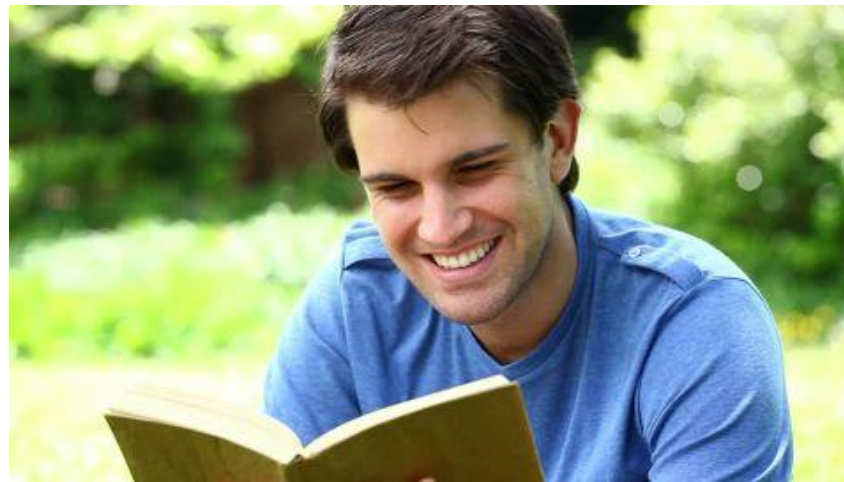

The events of the movie followed one another very rapidly! It was very fast-moving.

Can you think of books that match these quotes?

The book was hilarious!

I couldn't stop laughing while reading it.

After all, that book wasn't so good. It was very predictable! I knew what was going to happen since the beginning.

Can you think of books/movies that match these quotes?

I found it really thought-provoking. I kept thinking about it for hours!

My brother enjoys a lot watching moving movies, but he always ends up crying!

What about you?

Do you prefer paper books or e-books?

Do you enjoy the same watching a movie at the cinema and watching it at home?

What about you?

Are people reading less now than 10 years ago? Why?

Which movies would you describe with this expression?

The special effects will blow you away

Which books would you describe with this expression?

I couldn't put it down

Extreme adjectives are words that give a special emphasis to one or some characteristics of the subject.

- The book was hilarious... I couldn't stop laughing!
- That movie was fantastic! I recommend it to everyone.
- All the people were terrified watching that horror movie at the cinema.
- The director was delighted to receive the Nobel Prize.

standard

(very)

happy

good

tired

cold

sad

funny

angry

scared

EXTREME

(absolutely)

delighted fantastic

exhausted

freezing

devastated

hilarious

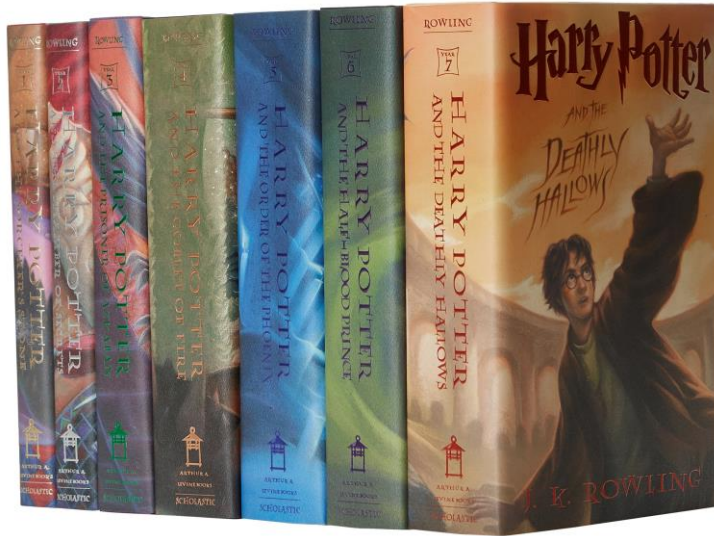

furious

terrified

Do you think you would be a good novelist?
Why?

Have you read any books that have been made into films? Which version did you prefer, the book or the film?

We hope you've enjoyed the class!

